VOYAGEUR

1935

Presented by the Senior
Class of Freeport High School

THE Class of 1935 dedicates this "Voyageur" to Miss Maude L. Marean, in appreciation of her invaluable work as director of dramatics and public speaking, and in observance of this, her twentieth year of teaching in Freeport schools.

Foreword

"All the world's a stage,
And all the men and women merely players."

—WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE

THE WORLD, we say, is a huge stage upon which are played many parts, and many acts. With the closing of the school year, we, the class of 1935, complete another act on the stage of life, and venture forth to another scene.

We have played in our drama for four years. From the first when we made our grand entrance, felt the thrill of a first appearance, until now, when we leave the stage of high school, we have each had a part as members of classes and organizations. We have filled the stage with our ambition and activity. Some of us have been leaders, the stars of our company, while others have had less outstanding roles, but all have been necessary to the fullness and completeness of the play.

We share the success of our performance with our directors, the faculty. From their wisdom and experience on the stage of life, they have taught us how to play this act of life, and have prepared us for greater parts.

But now, this act done, we must move on. There is but one performance. Our troupe, which has played so long together, must now disband, for "one man in his life plays many parts". In this act we have served our apprenticeship. May we attain great heights, great dramatic triumphs, in all our future roles!

Administration

The dignity of wisdom belongs to them.
They teach us more than just the lines they speak;
We are the pliant clay from which they mold
The characters which we are to portray.

"ONCE more the silent wheels of Time their annual round have driven" and once again it is our happy privilege to extend congratulations to a class about to graduate from Freeport High School.

Class of 1935—yours has been a record of accomplishment; you have met the difficulties attendant upon your high school course unflinchingly and smilingly; in your activities outside the class room, you have "played hard and fair" and have upheld the best traditions of your school. A thoroughly delightful group, well worthy of an important place in the remembrance of those whose privilege it has been to teach and those charged with supervision of the business and educational policies and activities of your school.

Your Board of Education not only rejoices with you in the attainment of a "beautiful goal with race well run," but wishes you God speed. May success crown your every effort all through life and may you all enjoy full measure of health and happiness.

GEORGE C. COLYER,
President of the Board of Education.

GREETINGS TO THE CLASS OF 1935

Graduates:

You have had your part in the open stage of high school life. As student-citizens led by the spirit of F. H. S. you have played with distinction various individual roles and are now to take your stations in the complex drama ahead of you, either in institutions of higher learning or in the community life and its pursuits.

As the final curtain draws on the scenes of your high school days, the best wishes of the promoters, producers, managers, directors and coaches attend you. Your high school has trained you for the attainment and preservation of physical fitness, for the elevating use of leisure time, for productive work and thrift, for the sustaining and abiding values of worthy home membership, and for international good will and understanding. May each one of you play well an active role of citizenship impelled by a spirit of thoughtful, intelligent, altruistic service. Your richest happiness and truest success will come only from a life lived well.

If you would have people believe in you as men and women, continue to develop those qualities that make for character.

With very best wishes,

JOHN W. DODD,
Superintendent of Schools.

TO THE GRADUATING CLASS OF 1935:

"Education is training the mind and the will to do the thing you ought to do when you should whether you like it or not."—Dr. Charles E. Barker.

It is often well at the end of a race for a runner to subject himself to a conscious evaluation of his training and technique to see if his record could have been improved. Dr. Barker has given to every member of your class a measuring stick by which you, too, may with profit evaluate your successes and failures as students in Freeport High School. College and business are demanding today that men and women be the masters of their minds and wills.

This splendid Year Book, which you have so successfully used to mirror the activities and achievements of yourselves and your fellow students, is the product of trained minds and disciplined wills.

I have had the unique pleasure of working with most of you for a period of six years. You undoubtedly represent the best and the finest that Freeport High School has ever produced.

As you take up new duties and assume new phases of responsibility I wish you health, good fortune, hard work, and enduring friendships.

M. M. MANSPERGER,
Principal

TO MY FRIENDS OF THE GRADUATING CLASS OF 1935—

Greetings and Congratulations—

If "all the world's a stage", then in this drama of life there must be some part to be played by each one of you.

The successful actor on the theatrical stage, if questioned, will tell you of the hours, days, months, yes and years which he has been obliged to spend in practice and preparation before he could even start on his career. His pathway to success has been hard and steep, and it has been necessary for him ever to keep his goal in view, or he would have long since become discouraged.

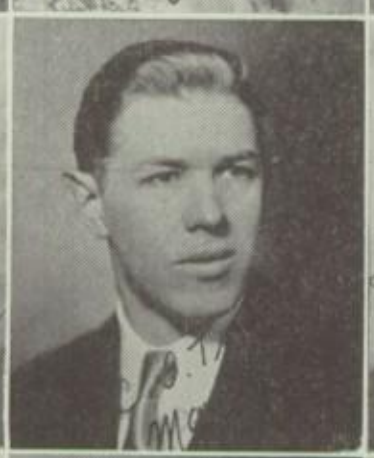
Your school days, my young friends, have been the years of practice and preparation which should make you ready for the opening of your career on the world's stage.

I count it a real joy to have been privileged to share with you in your work and play, your discouragements and successes of the past six years, and no one will watch with keener interest than I how you play your part on the stage of life.

"Act well your part; there all the honor lies."

Remember me always as one vitally interested in you and in the attempts which you make to reach your goal.

Your sincere friend,
RUTH E. COCHRAN,
Vice-Principal.



Great honor is due Miss Caroline G. Atkinson for the praiseworthy achievement of having taught in the Freeport schools for the past fifty years.

"Memory was given us that we might have roses in December." Not for gold would I exchange my delightful recollections of Freeport school life. To all who ever called me "teacher", to the graduating class of 1935, and to the Alumni Association I extend sincere greetings of appreciation and friendship. In the familiar words of my favorite school song, "Hail to dear old Freeport!"

Caroline G. Atkinson

From far and near we gather on this stage,
With every type of player in our midst.
Though spotlight picks but very few for fame,
The rest remain to do their needed bit.

Senior High Organizations

To carry out our aims of many years
We join in somewhat smaller groups, and try
To work behind the scenes and learn to make
A simple thing worthwhile for future days.

National Honor Society

OFFICERS

Margaret Deterling ..... President
Cuyler Westcott ..... Vice-President
Wanda Osiecki ..... Secretary

To be chosen a member of the National Honor Society is undoubtedly the greatest honor that can be bestowed upon a senior of Freeport High School. The fact that it is a national organization should be sufficient to prove this, but add to it that its members must rank highest in Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service, and the proof is conclusive.

The first group of members to be admitted for this year was composed of Margaret Deterling, Robert Keshefsky, Betty Greenleaf, Cuyler Westcott, Mabel Licence, Wanda Osiecki, Irving St. Claire, Zelda Marks, and Robert Bartelstone, who were notified last June before the student assembly and inducted into the chapter at the annual banquet at the Nassau Shores Country Club. The second group to be chosen was selected in an Honor Society assembly on March 7 of this year. Those honored were Newton Parks, Kenneth Miller, Juliane Augner, Dixon Allo, James Hill, Jean Gold, Ann Doyle, Charles Friedman, and Walter Nichols.

This year the 1934-1935 chapter has made plans to collaborate with members of the preceding chapters in compiling a record of achievements of all the members belonging to the society since its origin. This record will be appended to from year to year. As each member graduates from high school and enters either college or business, every worthwhile honor that is accorded him will be registered in the book. In this manner a permanent history of the Honor Society will be on file.

A feature of the Society is its annual dinner held at the Nassau Shores Country Club. The noted alumni who are members return to tell of their experiences in scholastic and business life. Always the keynote of their speeches is the importance and significance that membership in the National Honor Society carries.

General Organization

THE General Organization has just ended one of the most successful seasons that it has ever enjoyed. At the beginning of the year the incoming council was determined and eager to carry on and uphold the lofty standards of former councils. Now, as the school year closes, this worthy and efficient body, with its hopes realized, leaves its many responsibilities to be shouldered by an equally competent General Organization Council.

The Council began its work by conducting a successful sale of Activities Tickets. As a result of the drive, the General Organization was able to support the various groups which depend on it for financial aid. Fall sports, including football, hockey, and basketball were given appropriations, and money was granted the girls' hockey team and the boys' football team for entertainment purposes.

The literary organs, "FlasHingS", "Student", and "Voyageur", also received appropriations with which to carry on their important work.

Now, as the term closes, the Council hopes that a most successful year is in store for the newly elected members for 1935-1936.

Voyageur

AFTER a thoroughly enjoyable year of work, the 1935 staff presents the "Voyageur." The fun we've had assembling the various features, tending to each details, preparing the volume for publication, has been unlimited. We hope sincerely that you, too, will enjoy the 1935 "Voyageur."

With Miss Barlow as our capable adviser, Zelda Marks as Editor-in-Chief, and Wanda Osiecki as Art Editor, the staff has worked enthusiastically to bring new ideas and new features into the "Voyageur." Some of these have been a changed make-up, the commemoration of Miss Atkinson's fiftieth anniversary of teaching in Freeport, original blank verse introducing each section, Wanda Osiecki's modernistic art work, the additional spring sports pictures, and the Elizabethan theme. Then, realizing the importance of the Junior High Department, we set aside a special section where the classes and activities of the Junior High are represented. While introducing the new, we have yet left the old, retaining such popular features as the Hall of Fame, the baby pictures and the informal snapshots.

The Business Staff, too, under Mr. Ma Hood, has worked very efficiently and industriously to make possible this book, and their valuable work has contributed greatly to the success of the "Voyageur."

We have finished our work, and the 1935 "Voyageur" is yours. We hope that you will cherish it, and that it will keep with you always pleasant memories of the many things we have done together, and the people we have known.

Student

THE "STUDENT", official magazine of Freeport High School for thirty years, member of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association for eleven years, this year again proved itself to be a worthy representative of the school. At the Columbia Scholastic Press Convention, the "Student" was rated second place. This recognizes it in the class of the finest school magazines in the country. Three issues, based respectively on the themes, Transportation, Christmas, and the Thirtieth Anniversary, were brought out under the able direction of Mrs. Bockoven and Margaret Deterling, Editor. The other members of the staff were: Associate Editors, Ruth Robins and William Lindsay; Art Editor, Betty Greenleaf; Social Editor, Katherine Mackay; Alumni Editor, Wanda Osiecki; Sports Editor, Robert Bartelstone; Exchange Editor, Zelda Marks; Junior High Editor, Helen Fleming; Typists, Gertrude Runcie and Kenneth Miller; Art Adviser, Miss Constable. This year four new departments were added. There were Book Reviews, Assembly Notes, Club Notes, and the Junior High Section. The reviews were on good books interesting to the student body. In Assembly and Club notes, reports were made of the progress and doings in the assemblies and in the various school clubs. The Junior High section was devoted entirely to news of the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades, and to contributions from them. The Junior High School has thus come to take a high interest in the magazine.

Flashings

WITH the leadership of Cuyler Westcott, Editor-in-Chief, and Mr. A. L. Cosgrove, Faculty Adviser, "FlasHingS" has taken another step forward in its progress.

The peak of the season was reached at Christmas time, when a six page paper of five column, tabloid dimensions, was issued in place of the usual four. This undertaking was made possible by the efficient work of the business staff under the direction of Raymond Jansen.

"FlasHingS" again met with success at the annual Columbia Scholastic Press Association, where it took third place among school newspapers that were entered from all over the country.

The entire staff is to be congratulated for its success in continuing to make this paper a favorite with the student body.

A. A. Council

OFFICERS

President . . . . . Newton Parks
Vice-President . . . . . Ray Forker
Secretary . . . . . Edna Bedell
Girls' G. O. Representative . . . . Mabel Licence
Boys' G. O. Representative . . . . Mortimer Albin

One of the outstanding groups in Freeport High is the Athletic Association Council.

In the past few years, the work of the Council as the governing body of the athletics has been somewhat lax, but through the untiring efforts of President Newton Parks and "Mortie" Albin, Boys' G. O. Representative, it has successfully forged its way into the important position it now holds.

The Council has improved its status by revising its Constitution, making such changes and amendments as were necessary for the good of the athletic body, and it has made wise decisions which necessitated careful judgment.

This has been a "star" year for the A. A. and we hope it will carry on.

Senior High Traffic Squad

THE Senior High School Traffic Squad, one of the most important organizations in Freeport High School, merits much praise for its efficient work during the past year. From the numerous seniors who willingly offered their services the squad was chosen and divided into the "A" and "B" Squads, respectively, which alternated weekly.

The traffic court which was established last year was abandoned this year as there was no apparent need for it.

The members of the squads served willingly as ushers at the senior and junior high school plays and band concerts.

Under the capable supervision of Mr. Frey, and the fine work of Captains Edward Watson and Mabel Licence, the squad has been very successful during '34 and '35.

Assembly Committee

Members

Zelda Marks . . . . . Chairman
Ethel Jokumsen . . . . . Program Manager
Ruth Fowler . . . . . Publicity, Secretary
Carman Bode . . House Manager, G. O. Representative
Sylvia Johnson Katherine Colyer
Edward Watson

THE Assembly Committee should be highly commended for the exceedingly attractive and entertaining programs which it has presented to the student body during the school year of 1934-1935.

After the first two assemblies, which were the rally for the sale of Activities Tickets and an activities assembly, the committee presented such well-known personages as Dr. Stanley Krebs, Dr. A. M. Nielson, and Mr. Duffield of the "Times." The band and orchestra presented several musical programs which proved even more successful than those of former years.

The Assembly Committee wishes to extend its sincere thanks to those organizations which have helped so much in the presentation of better and more entertaining assembly programs.

Debate Club

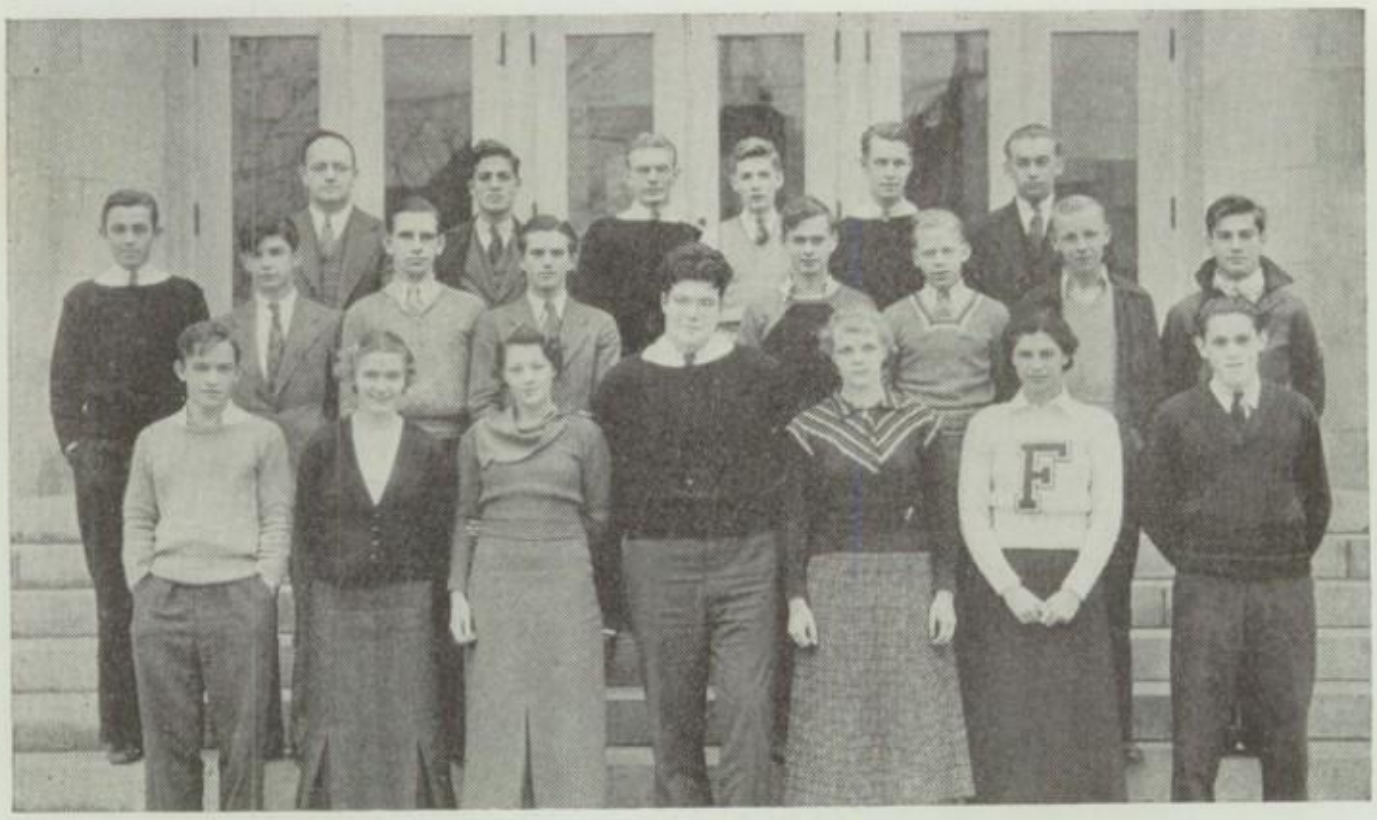
THE purpose of the Debate Club is to bring together young people who have mutual interests where current day problems and events are concerned. From the members of the club, the debate team was chosen.

The team gave many excellent performances, contesting against Oceanside, Baldwin, South Side, Bay Shore, and its traditional rival, Peekskill. This year, the team attained the enviable record of winning all their Long Island debates.

Due to the efforts of its President, Ruth Robins; Vice-President, William Serby; Secretary, Beatrice Muratori; Treasurer, Charles Friedman; G. O. Representative, Jean Gold; Team Captain, Zelda Marks; and Faculty Adviser, Mr. Smith, the club has had a very successful season.

The most important topic debated was: Resolved: That the federal government should give annual grants to the states for the equalizing of educational opportunities.

Science Club



President . . . . . John Stokke
Vice-President . . . . . James Hill
Secretary . . . . . Margaret Deterling
Treasurer . . . . . Jack Lowe
G. O. Representative . . . . . David Small
Adviser . . . . . Mr. Jordan

A PROMINENT club in the school this year is the Science Club. This worthy organization comprises thirty students, all of whom are interested in science in all its phases.

Each week the club has enjoyed programs which have included lectures, motion pictures, and interesting experiments.

The Science Club has visited many places of interest, including the surrounding schools and near-by factories. Through these various visits, the members have gained a great deal of knowledge concerning the diversified fields of science in which they all show such an active interest.

Masque and Wig Club

WITH its membership numbered at forty-one, the Drama Club is again under the skillful guidance of Miss Maude Marean, after having enjoyed a successful year under the competent direction of Mr. Jones.

The members of this club have presented many worth while one-act plays and recitals. Among the plays were "Red Carnation," "Two Crooks and a Lady," "Just for Justin," "The Burglar," and "The Pot Boiler." In the production of these plays, the undisputed talents of our many dramatically inclined students have been discovered.

The Drama Club cooperated in making Girls' Week a success by presenting two one-act plays, "Just for Justin," and "Spreading the News."

This club also contributed money for the trophy case fund.

The Drama Club seems to gain more popularity as the years pass by, and its members deserve all the praise that can be bestowed on them for their many stellar performances.

Tri-Circle Club

Officers

President	Florence Tonjes
Vice-President	Eileen Neuman
Secretary	Alma Weinhold
Treasurer	Mary Lyons
G. O. Representative	Beatrice Muratori
Faculty Adviser	Miss Bates

WITH Florence Tonjes as its president, the Tri-Circle Club of Freeport High School this year has attained new heights of achievement. The pledge of service to school and community which each member had made has been faithfully kept.

The girls have acted as hostesses and have served on committees at such functions as the Faculty dinner, the Hi-Y dinner, and the reception to the mothers and daughters during Girls' Week.

Other activities of the club included entertaining the Library Club at a tea, making garments for the Needlework Guild, sponsoring a fashion show, and contributing money for the new trophy case.

The alumnae branch which was formed last year has continued the helpful work which the members started during their high school days.

Library Club

UNDER its organizer and leader, Miss Swan, the Library Club has become one of the foremost clubs of the school.

In past years, the money taken in through dues, cake sales, movie benefits and other money-making projects was used to buy furniture and books for the library. However, this year, the money was contributed to help pay for a trophy case in the school, and to aid Girls' Week.

The purpose of the club is to aid the librarian in her routine and to become better acquainted with the library and with literary works that interest all book lovers.

The club has reached its full capacity this year, boasting thirty members, with many underclassmen eagerly awaiting its activities of the new term.

Senior High School Orchestra

MR. FREY has again directed a Senior High orchestra of which everyone is proud. A musical organization in which the talent of its individual members has been skillfully blended into a beautiful tonal ensemble, it has received frequent and widespread praise.

Among the many special programs in which the orchestra took part were the Baldwin Good Will Meeting, a concert during National Education Week, the Community Christmas Program, and the Christmas Alumni Assembly.

The section heads were Margaret Deterling, pianos; Hubert Gainer, strings; Joseph Dlabola, woodwinds; Harry Rantsch, brass; Arnold Fishkind, basses; and Pierre Canese, drums. Walter Nichols was manager, Willard Jones librarian, and Hubert Gainer student director.

The class of 1935 thanks Mr. Frey and his orchestra for much pleasant musical entertainment.

Band

THE band has been enthusiastically received whenever it has appeared in public. To every football game it has brought the lively, colorful atmosphere of a college contest, and has spurred the team on to greater efforts.

However, the band's playing hasn't been confined to athletic contests alone. It contributed to a large variety of activities. Among these were the dedication of the Meadowbrook Causeway and the Grove Theatre Benefit, where enough money was made to buy chimes for the band and the orchestras.

The section heads of the band were Harry Rantsch for trumpets, Joseph Dlabola for clarinets, Millard Dickerson for saxophones, Veronica Dorney for horns, Fred Ohms for trombones, John Stenswold for baritones, Elmer Sievwright for basses, and Pierre Canese for drums. Walter Nichols was manager, John Stenswold, librarian, and Harry Rantsch was student director.

To Mr. Frey and his band, the best of luck is the wish from the class of 1935.

Senior High School Girls' Chorus

UNDER the direction of Miss Roberts, the Senior High School Girls' Chorus has developed into an active organization. Its membership consists of thirty-five girls who have met three periods every week and who receive for their work a quarter of a unit towards graduation. According to the girls, it is a very pleasant and worth while way to earn credits. Barbara Steiert is their accompanist.

During the year the student body has been entertained by their voices on many occasions, among them the Educational Week Program, the concert in November, and the annual Orchestra and Glee Club Concert in May.

The highlight of their season was the special Christmas program which they presented for the Junior High Assembly. Many of the old carols were sung by a specially selected chorus. The girls were dressed in long, black robes with deep white collars and were seated on a dimly lighted stage. This was one of the most impressive assembly programs of the year.

Cheer Leaders

UNDER the efficient guidance of Miss Lawless, the cheer leading squad enjoyed a most successful year, both from the standpoint of arousing enthusiasm in the student body and of serving as medium between contestants and spectators at the athletic contests.

Betty Letson, Edward Bechtold and Robert Donaldson formed the nucleus of a squad to which ten active assistants, Charlotte Obey, Caroline Patterson, Adele Frank, Bob Kurz, Peggy Winne, Marjorie Cunningham, Mary Harrison, Garrett Thomas, Ruth Britt and Virginia Schwaner were later added. At football, basketball and baseball games, assemblies, pep meetings, and the band movie benefit at the Grove Theatre, these red and white clad dynamos were very much in evidence.

Probably no organization in our school system has done more to promote school spirit and sportsmanship and to add to the prestige of Freeport High than this capable, energetic group of cheer leaders.

Our younger actors enter on the scene

And even now they start to take our place.

The roles we play to them we soon must leave;

Their "leads" are not so very far away.

National Junior Honor Society

THE Freeport division of the National Junior Honor Society has completed the fourth year of its existence by faithfully upholding the high ideals and worthy principles of its predecessors and the Senior High School chapter.

This year the induction, held in January, was written and supervised by the original members, Jean Fenner, President; Albert Da Silva, Vice-President; Malcolm Komitor, Treasurer; Virginia Miller, Secretary; Edith McKenna, Helen Fleming, Margaret Goller, Audrey Hanse, Joan Giblyn, Glentworth Lamb and Virginia Stewart.

Those who were admitted to the National Junior Honor Society in an impressive ceremony included Horst Schweighofer, Beryl Allo, Billy Thompson, Geraldine Lombaer, Carol Osten, Quentin Wald, Jean Duncan, Pearl Lombaer, Ralph Donnelly, Edward Bogowsky, and Mary Lutz from the ninth grade; and Betty Joan O'Brien, Phyllis Schiff, Carl Muller, Mary Close, Dean Gould, Ruth Conzen, Walter MacKenzie and Julia Lewis from the eighth grade.

These students have been honored according to the four cardinal objectives of the National Honor Society: Character, Scholarship, Leadership and Service. Thus it may be truthfully said that these are boys and girls who will, in future years, attain prominence in the affairs of our school.

Sports

Another group in lighter vein we find,
Pursuers of a wholesome active fun.
They need no flowing robe or stilted style.
Their skill and fortitude count much in life.

Football

ONE cannot help wondering at the pluck and courage the football team displayed after dropping close decisions or playing an agonizing tie game. We pay tribute to our gallant co-captains, Watson and Keleher, and to Coach O'Donovan for imbuing the team with his unconquerable spirit. Although some might consider the season somewhat unsuccessful, no one can detract from the praise and credit which rightfully belongs to a team often outmatched and outweighed, but never outfought. No one will ever forget the thrilling second-half drive to victory in the Textile game, or the grim goal line stands in the Baldwin game.

Without attempting to offer as an excuse for losing games the fact that the team had a difficult schedule, we will, nevertheless, prophesy that next year, with a less overbalanced schedule, Freeport will end up with an enviable record. We sincerely hope that Captain-elect Harold Carr may lead the team to victory in every game.

Squad list: Keleher, Watson (co-captains), Paraspola, Brown, Drobinska, Parks, Allo, Carr, Schaeffer, Aronson, Hershkowitz, Sievwright, Gainer, Cannon, Thorn, Lynch, Freeman, Maxwell (lettermen), Moran, E. Anderson, Cassasa, McCabe, Lugrin, Glenz, Moore, Marshall, Morrow, J. Stokke, R. Stokke, Stevenson, Muro, J. Anderson.

Boys' Basketball

OUR basketball team, captained by Newton Parks, started the season with enthusiasm, annexing six consecutive victories before being defeated by Samuel Tilden in a close game. Then, to show that this lapse was only an accident, they ran up five more victories before slumping again, by losing to Sewanhaka and Mineola. However, the Red Devils recovered quickly and finished the season with four more victories and an unfortunate defeat by Baldwin.

To the perseverance and ability of Glen O'Donovan as a coach, we owe the success of our basketball team which ranks with the best on Long Island. Its defence was almost impregnable, due in great part to the fine back-court work of Brown and Watson. Verity, Goudge, and Parks complete this remarkable quintet augmented by Hershkowitz, Sternard and Murphy.

The team, which was greatly handicapped by the loss of Dickerson and Scudder, our centers, carried on with the aid of the capable reserves, the nucleus of next year's varsity.

Squad list: Brown, Watson, Parks (captain), Verity, Goudge, Hershkowitz, Morrow, Cruickshank, Moran, Sternard, Murphy, Donaldson, Penta, Searfoss, Starcke, Freeman, Freeman, Drobinska, McCabe, Bartlestone.

Hockey

AFTER spending a week in August at a world-famous hockey camp, the hockey girls started practice for a successful season.

The excellent coaching of Miss Clark enabled the girls to win three games, tie two, and lose three.

At the annual Long Island Field Hockey Association Tournament, Freeport came out on top when they won three games and tied one in the round-robin games. Our team was successful in getting two girls on the first team and two on the second team of the All-Long Island Hockey Team. Veronica Dorney and "Mibs" Licence received the first team honors, and "Jimmie" Elliott and Mary Vestal placed on the second team.

Freeport can boast of a good hockey team. May Miss Clark do as well next year.

Squad: Aaronson, Arnhold, Avidan, Britt, Baker, Colman, Cordaro, Dorney, Drescher, Elliott, Hershkowitz, Kurz, Morgan, Mackay, Meighan, Moser, Pupulidy, Rosenfeld, Raynor, Pearce, Richard, Stauback, Simonsen, Vestal, Van Riper, Weinhold, Weinberg, Wright, Yetman. Licence (Captain), Leibowitz (Manager).

Girls' Basketball

THE Freeport High School Girls' Basketball Team, led by Captain Edna Bedell and Coach Clark, have had a very successful season. The girls have gone through an unbeaten season, nine games in all, and with these nine games added to those of last year, it totals twelve consecutive games for the girls.

With such sharpshooters as Vestal, Dorney, Runcie, Drescher, and Van Riper, the girls piled up huge scores to topple their various opponents.

These feats of athletic prowess are overshadowed only by the sterling game played by the guards, Bedell, Inglima, and Licence.

The unsung heroes of all successful seasons are the unglorified "scrubs". These girls come to practice every night, take a "beating" from the varsity, and come up smiling. They deserve more than a vote of thanks, so let's give them the "Nine for the Scrubs".

Squad: Ackerman, Baker, Banker, Biederman, Britt, Dammas, Dorney, Drescher, Elliott, Inglima, Licence, Parfert, Mott, Rapp, Runcie, Sheard, Van Riper, Vestal, Wright.
Bedell (Captain), Runcie, Hicks (Managers).

Class Diary

UP, AND to a new place called Freeport High School where we started an eventful four-year journey to graduation. Next, to the voting place to choose a goodly group to rule us. They, happily, included President Irving St. Claire; Vice President Clarence Rauter; Secretary James Hill; Social Secretary Mabel Licence; Treasurer Helen Newman; and G. O. Representative Margaret Deterling.

To the Freshman Tea Dance and a mighty merry time. This was our first social affair and upper classes talk of our initial success. Heard, in February, a goodly group of speeches at the American Legion Prize Speaking Contest where we were excellently represented by Sidney Weinberg. Verily, we do find, at the National Junior Honor Society induction, those who will heap intellectual glory at our humble feet. They do include Robert Keshefsky, Gertrude Runcie, Margaret Deterling, Wanda Osiecki, Cuyler Westcott, James Hill, Robert Bartelstone, Florence Simonson, Margaret Albrecht, Betty Greenleaf, and Robert Stokke.

Pleased mightily and work on towards other projects, gifted with quiet confidence.

Away and betimes to school. We are sophomores and nicely pleased.

By night to the Senior High School Play where Zelda Marks and Fred Patterson joyously waved our banner. Comes January, and, we are told by friendly upper classmen, of the dreaded tests of learning. By invitation, to examination rooms where we give a mighty leap and successfully clear another obstacle on our way to graduation.

On a happy, pleasant morning to choose our escorts. Truly, it was a hard fight, the winners being well pleased. Those so honored were Robert Keshefsky, President; Katherine Mackay, Vice-President; Helen Newman, Secretary; Robert Bartlestone, Treasurer; Katherine Dunn, Social Secretary, and Robert Stokke, G. O. Representative.

To our accounts, where we find that a goodly number of our class are members of the many clubs and organizations throughout our school.

Up, and a warm morning, to begin a most pleasant season. They do tell us that we are soon to reside in Senior abodes. Thus, we do settle down to begin a mighty industrious time. Rumors of the proximity of Senior paradise prove an incentive to our work; much knowledge is thus gained, and new leaders are gladly acclaimed. These are chosen to guide us ever nearer to our goal: President, Robert Bartelstone; Vice-President, Robert Keshefsky; Secretary, Margaret Deterling; Social Secretary, Barbara Wright; Treasurer, Mabel Licence; and G. O. Representative, Cuyler Westcott.

Hearing there is to be a National Honor Society induction, we to the meeting place where several enjoy the results of those honored we espy Margaret Deterling, Cuyler Westcott, Mabel Licence, Robert Bartelstone, Robert Keshefsky, Betty Greenleaf, Irving St. Claire, Zelda Marks and Wanda Osiecki. We do also find a sports goddess in our midst as Mabel Licence is honored as the first four-letter girl in the history of our school. Truly, this girl does bring great honor to our class.

After, to the arena where we do battle the mighty muscled Seniors on Class Day. The sun is dimmed before these dignified sons of F. H. S. recover, for they have lost the laurels of this gladly joyous day to an even mightier muscled group of Juniors.

Now, we do prepare for our last year in the school which has grown dearer as the burning suns of each season floor the skies with a rush of color. A hard battle ahead, but we do feel that the last three years have benefited us in many ways. Expectantly we await the time when we shall once more return to our classes.

This morning, to that long sought goal, Room 200. Faces are determined, joyous, calm, or indifferent, but everyone is glad to begin another season with tried and loyal companions. And so to the gridiron where crowds thrill to the cry of "hold that line." We did glimpse Hubert Gainer and Donald Maxwell among a snarl of tangled arms and legs. Again betook ourselves to the Stadium where Captain Mabel Licence did lead the ranks of her hockey team against all comers.

At night to the Senior High Play where Katherine Colyer, Shirley Pearsall, Jean Gold and Fred Patterson did outdo themselves in their successful attempt to scale the heights of Mt. Thespianism. Soon after, to the court where Captain Parks, aided by Edward Watson and George Brown, led our quintet through a satisfying schedule.

We do glimpse an exceedingly busy man in Cuyler Westcott, who, this year, leads "FlasHingS" on to new successes. His companions in the field of literature are Margaret Deterling and Zelda Marks, who have done so well in editing the "Student" and the "Voyageur". The scratching pens of these three, together with their efficient helpers, have done much to lighten a sometimes tiresome burden.

To the meeting place where several of our class are honored by membership in the National Honor Society. These wise and learned people do include Jean Gold, Newton Parks, Kenneth Miller, Walter Nichols, Anne Doyle, Julianne Augner, James Hill and Charles Friedman.

At last, to the final barrier between us and that long-sought goal, graduation. With merry spirits, we do prepare ourselves to conquer the once-dreaded Regents. Now, with a truly mighty leap, the last obstacle is cleared.

Commencement is approached with hearts both joyous and sad—joyous, perhaps because we do leave an enviable record behind; sad, because we shall bid adieu to the scenes of many a gladly pleasant time.

And so we do betake ourselves away. This four-year journey has done much to prepare us for what does lie ahead, and for this preparation, we do sincerely thank those who have given us their knowledge so that we can face the world with the quiet confidence that is so necessary while searching for our goal, Success.

"A Full House"

ONCE more the curtain has rung down on the last act of the annual Senior High School Play, and another outstanding occasion of the year has passed.

The vehicle for this clever performance was "A Full House," a three-act farce by Fred Jackson. Ottily and George Howell, bride and groom; Daphne Chartres and Ned Pembroke, lovers; Susie Sponge and Parks, meddling servants; Miss Winnacker, old-maid aunt; Nicholas King, suave crook; Mrs. John Pembroke, society matron; Mrs. Fleming, irate landlady; Vera Vernon, clever chorus girl; Kearney, Mooney, and the Sergeant, pompous policemen, all did their part to furnish an evening of fun in a play such as only our coach, Miss Marean, could produce. Many performers made their last appearance on this stage at this time.

Boys' Week

THIS year the Senior Class introduced into Freeport High School a feature new to Freeport as well as to the rest of Long Island. Under the guidance of Mr. Mansperger and Miss Cochran, and under the general sponsorship of the Parent-Teacher Association, we inaugurated a Boys' Week and a Girls' Week.

One whole week was set aside to be devoted particularly to the boys of our school, and another especially to the girls. Speakers were obtained and various events interesting to each group were presented. Each of the weeks was student-planned, the boys aided by Mr. Mansperger and the girls by Miss Cochran.

Boys' Week took place during the third week in October. At the beginning of the school year, the Boys' Week Committee, elected by the boys and composed of Chairman Ed. Watson, Donald Maxwell, Ray Forker, Kenneth Miller and Hubert Gainer, met with Mr. Mansperger and worked diligently to plan the week.

The boys, aided by the co-operation of the churches, the Parent-Teacher Association, the Exchange Club, the Village of Freeport, and local newspapers, were most successful in realizing these objectives.

The first day of Boys' Week, Sunday, October 14th, was designated by the pastors of various churches of Freeport as Father and Son Sunday. Fathers attended church services with their sons and special programs were arranged.

On Monday the week was officially opened in the high school. At 8:30 in the morning a mass meeting of all the boys in the school was held to hear an address by Major Edward D. Cray. Major Cray, President of the New York Vocational Guidance Association, was one of the originators of National Boys' Week, and in 1925 was the Executive Director of the New York City Boys' Week. Monday was sponsored by the boys' unit of the Freeport Hi-Y Organization.

The theme of the next main day, Wednesday, was "Sports and Development". In the morning Tom Thorp, famous football star and coach, was guest speaker. The evening program was sponsored by the Exchange Club. At this time some six hundred fathers with their sons gathered in the auditorium to hear such interesting speakers as Mayor Patterson, Mr. Richard Winchester of the Exchange Club, Mr. Dodd and Mr. Mansperger. There then followed a concert by the high school band. The boys and their fathers later adjourned to the gymnasium, where cider and doughnuts closed an enjoyable evening.

Friday was devoted to the theme, "How to Get the Most Out of Life". The main speaker of the day was Dr. Charles E. Barker, noted physician and Rotary Club speaker. At 8:30 he addressed the boys on "What I Wish My Father Had Told Me", after which the boys were given an opportunity to discuss personal problems with him. In the afternoon, Dr. Barker also addressed Baldwin High School, and in the evening the Parent-Teacher Association presented him to a large body of parents.

On Friday afternoon a group of Freeport High School boys had the novel opportunity of taking over the village government. Each of the village offices was filled by a boy elected by the whole body. Ray Malone took Mayor Patterson's position; Newton Parks became Chief of Police, and Bob Bartelstone became Village Clerk. The Manager of the Sanitary Department was Bill Lindsay; and the Fire Chief was Edward Bechtold. Edgar Whitmore was Treasurer; Joe Brown, Corporation Counsel; Jack Lugrin, Superintendent of Buildings; Allen Stokke, Assessor; Donald Jones, Manager of the Line Department.

The week was brought to a close on Saturday by a huge Father and Son parade. Accompanied by the high school band, more than five hundred fathers and sons paraded to the Municipal Stadium. Here, from especially reserved seats on the fifty yard line, they watched an exciting football game between Freeport and Edison Vocational Technical School of Mount Vernon.

The week was a great success, both from the educational and recreational standpoint, and the boys are to be highly praised for the fine results.

Girls' Week

GIRLS' WEEK was held during the first week of April. Near the close of the last school year, the girls elected a committee, composed of Chairman Margaret Deterling, Mabel Licence, Wanda Osiecki, Ruth Fowler and Mary Edith Morgan, to take charge of preparations for the program. These girls worked industriously with Miss Cochran and sub-committees until an interesting week was scheduled.

The effort that the girls used to make the week a success was well rewarded, and their objectives were all attained.

Girls' Week started on Sunday, March 31. This day was Mother and Daughter Sunday in the churches, and the pastors of various churches held appropriate observances of the occasion.

On Monday morning a mass meeting of all the girls of the school was held in the auditorium. Here they heard an address by the eminent Dr. Arthur Frank Payne. Dr. Payne, Consulting Psychologist of City College of New York, spoke on "How Can I Understand Myself."

On Wednesday afternoon the girls and their mothers met in the High School auditorium. Here the Drama Club presented two plays, coached by Miss Marean, with all-girl casts. One was "Just for Justin", in which Loretta Sofield, Lucille Shore, Marjorie Cunningham, Gertrude Dobbin, Peggy Winne, Geraldine Lombaer and Pearl Lombaer played; the other play was "Spreading the News", by Lady Gregory. The cast of this included Shirley Pearsall, Marjorie Cunningham, Audrey Leff, Jean Gold, Geraldine Lombaer, Lee Woolley, Lucille Shore, Charlotte Amende, Audrey Hanse and Margaret Goller, Between the presentation of the two plays, duets were sung by Peggy Winne and Winifred Davidson. Another feature of the afternoon was a concert by a special girls' orchestra directed by Mr. Frey. After this entertainment, the mothers and daughters adjourned to the gymnasium, where a reception was held. There, the Parent-Teachers Association, aided by the Girls' Chapter of the Hi-Y, served refreshments.

On Thursday, in the morning, the girls heard Dr. Anna Reed, Personnel Director of the New York University School of Education. Dr. Reed, a famous authority on vocational education, member of the National Education Association, and of the National Association of Deans of Women, and one of America's most outstanding women in the field of education, addressed the girls of the Senior and Junior High School on "What About the Future?" She remained at the school the whole day to consult with girls about their vocational and educational problems. Dr. Reed also spoke to the members of the High School Parent-Teachers Association after school, when she made many valuable suggestions to the mothers and teachers assembled.

Friday night, which closed the week's activities, was Sports and Recreation Night. Two large teams, the Red and the White, competed in various indoor games. Another feature of the evening was an exhibition of dancing and acrobatics.

The great success of Girls' Week was due to the hard work of the girls, and the enthusiastic co-operation of the school as well as to the helpful support of such outside organizations as the Athena Club, the Ruth Floyd Woodhull Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Town of Hempstead Chapter of the Zonta International, and the Parent-Teachers Association. The committee was able to provide something of interest and of educational value for each girl, and the girls deserve to be highly congratulated for this worthwhile achievement.

Will you have a good job

A YEAR FROM TODAY?

If you are considering a business career we can help you. For you need special training to succeed in today's business world. Our system of training girls has been tested and proved through more than 50 years. We teach each student individually . . . giving her experience that parallels actual business practice. Employers know of and appreciate our methods. Since the First of January, 1935, we have received 86 requests for girls trained by us. This was more than we were able to fill.

"Joe's," the High School Store,
It's really just next door;
It's the place where every fellow goes
To buy his pencils, pads, and sodas. It's "Joe's."

THE COMMUNITY GUIDE

Just as the electric signal directs daily traffic, so does the High School illuminate the pathway of the younger generation.

Likewise, the daily newspaper serves as a beacon for the entire community. It spotlights current happenings, reflects public sentiment and brightens the stop ahead.

May you and we be ever alert to our respective opportunities and responsibilies.

Congratulations and our best wishes to the class of 1935.
